

◆ Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?◆ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised.◆ And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain.◆ We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised.◆◆ 1 Corinthians 15:12-15 ESV

Paul is building an argument here, so please forgive me for interrupting him in the midst of his most salient point...◆ But I wanted us to mull-over this thought of ◆misrepresenting God.◆

Have you considered, dear friend, that we (Christians, believers in Christ, blood-bought individuals) are billboards for Christ?◆ His life, love, compassion, and even righteousness, are expressed within all that we think, say, and do!

We represent the Savior and King!

So... are you effective signage for your Lord?

Is there a passion each day for you to present Jesus in the best possible light?

It may be a familiar adage, but it◆s true ◆◆that you may be the only Jesus that some people ever see.◆◆ So, SHINE! ... And remember that most fixed signs sooner or later become invisible.◆ I highly recommend regular new growth!

Peace!
